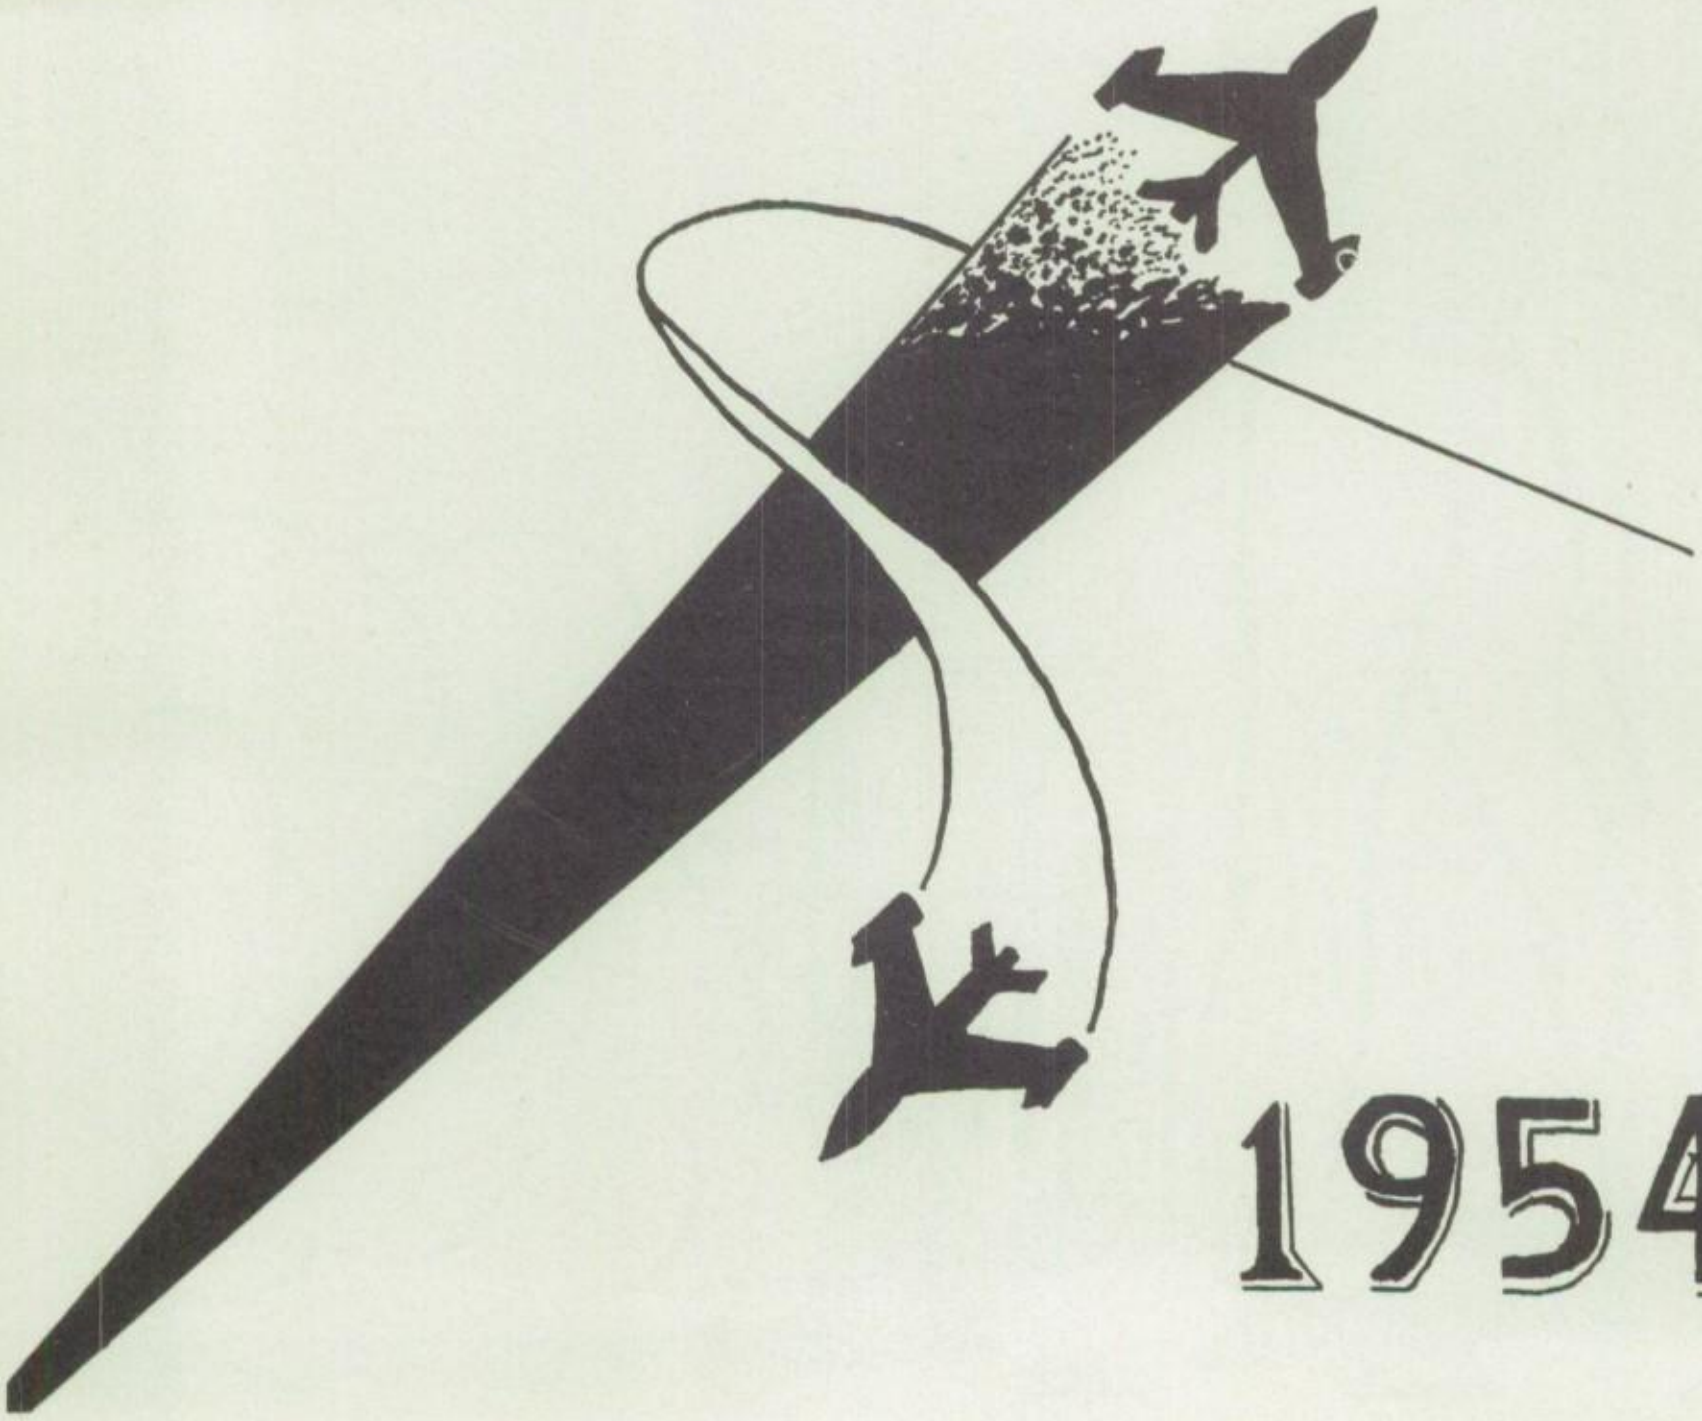
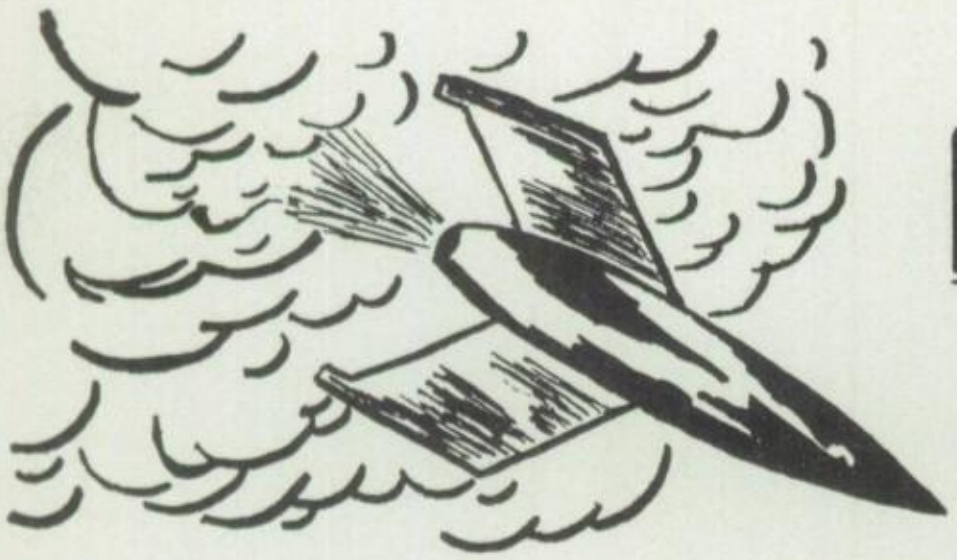
The RO-VIC 1954

THE

RO-VIC



1954



FOREWORD

This is our story-- of our studies and teachers our friends
the fun we shared our victories and losses.

This year has been one of the best years of our lives because in it we have had a glimpse of our opportunities in the future.

We have much to look forward to-- our life's work, more education, new friends and activities-- all these we will gain from the treasures of our four short years in Roanoke
High School.

If you would spend some time with us, read on---

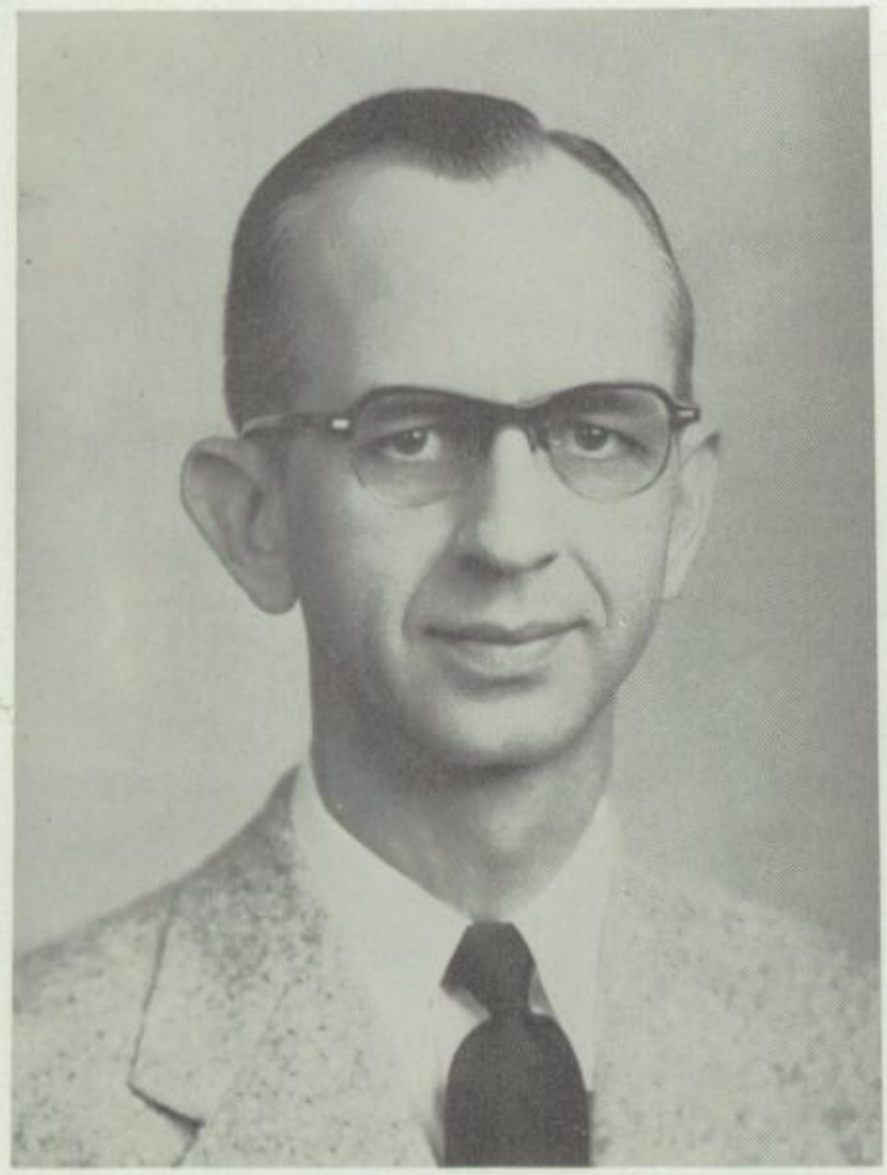
Administration



CLYDE C. CORN, Superintendent

Mr. Corn is finishing his second year as superintendent of the Roanoke-Benson Unit District 60. He attended Oakland City College, Indiana State College, and Ball State Teachers College, where he received his Masters degree. Mr. Corn is superintendent of a school district that includes two grade schools and two high schools in both Roanoke and Benson. He has done a good job of keeping all these schools running smoothly. During the past year Mr. Corn has seen the new building completed, and he now hopes to see the completion of the remodeling on the old school.

L. A. CRAVENS, Principal

Mr. Cravens is completing his second year as principal and has done a fine job. Mr. Cravens has served at Roanoke for twenty-six years. He received his Bachelors degree from Bradley University, and his Masters degree from the University of Illinois. Mr. Cravens is the Student Council advisor, and co-sponsor of the senior class.

Class History

We entered the first grade on August 31, 1942, with Miss McCleary as our teacher. There were 22 of us that started the long, but happy, school journey together. They were: Helen Audi, Joan Bortell, Betty DeGiovanni, Dorothy Jenkins, Rachel Leman, Shirley Gallianetti, Mary Sauder, Judy Fehr, Carol Wheelwright, Patsy Rathburn, Mary Ann Walker, Gary Audi, Jim Byrd, Gene Gudeman, Dick Herbst, Jim Monge, Dale McCauley, James Ronchetto, Jim Sauder, Dean Whittington, Jerry Pioletti, and William Ruhlander. We shall always remember that winter because it was so cold. One day it was so cold that only Mary Sauder, Betty DeGiovanni, Jim Monge, and Jerry Pioletti ventured out in the cold to come to school.

In the second grade Miss Budock was our teacher. New members of our class this year were Anita Sansone, Minnie Schluppe, Wanda Wilder, Roger Wilder and Jim Morrow. We lost James Ronchetto. The highlight of the second grade was the day Billy Ruhlander hit the jackpot on the slot machine uptown, only to have Miss Caldwell take the money from him.

We had two teachers in the third grade – Miss Bresson and Miss Beer. Entering our grade this year was Roger Whittington and leaving were Billy Ruhlander and Jerry Pioletti. The big event of this year was the "WAR BOND drive contest". Our grade defeated the fourth grade and they had to give us a party.

Miss Bresson was our teacher again in the fourth grade. Several new pupils who moved to Roanoke to join our class were: Sue Vogel, Marshall Clannin, and Marilyn Bernius. We also gained Leroy Monge and Francis Fuchs. Wanda Wilder moved away. Many good times were had at recess this year playing "Gorilla" in the baseball field.

Mrs. Ruble was our fifth grade teacher. We all remember the thrill we received when we moved "upstairs," as it was called. John Ulrich became a member of our class and Joan Bortell, Gene Gudeman, Virginia Lovings, and Roger Wilder departed.

In the sixth grade we received a large number of new pupils, many of them coming from country schools around Roanoke. They were: Nancy Martin, Dot Fischer, Beverly Capponi, Marian Dubois, Charles Bouchez, Mary Francis Kinder, and Bob Blunier. We lost Marilyn Bernius, Francis Fuchs, and Dickie Herbst. We were happy to have Mrs. Ruble as our teacher again. We had a large South American exhibit this year and spent many happy hours working on it.

Mrs. Miller was our teacher in the seventh grade. Three members of our present graduating class who joined us this year were: Marilyn Bernius, Lyford Klein, and Georgia Friend. We lost Jim Byrd, Charles Bouchez, and Mary Francis Kinder. Jim Monge was a member of the school basketball team this year. Ushers for eighth grade graduation were Judy Fehr, Nancy Martin, Marvin Aeschleman, and Jim Monge.

Once again in the eighth grade we gained many students from the country schools. They were Dick Bachman, Dale Kempf, Marvin Kennell, Tom Leman, Wally Leman, Roger Wilder, Ken Rushing, Grace Bachman, Shelby Kenyon, and Wanda Wilder. We lost Marshall Clannin. Mrs. Wiles was our teacher. Our officers were: Roger Whittington, President; Dean Whittington, Vice-President; Shirley Gallianetti, Secretary; Judy Fehr, Treasurer. Jim Monge and Betty DeGiovanni were given the school awards at our May graduation. We left the school a radio. We went to Springfield on our class trip. In fact, we all seemed to enjoy bus rides that year.

We entered high school the latter part of August, 1950. We started high school with the following officers; Betty DeGiovanni, President; Grace Bachman, Vice-President; Mary Sauder, Secretary–Treasurer. Student Council representatives were Jim Monge, Marian DuBois, and Betty DeGiovanni. Mr. Cravens was our class sponsor. Initiation was the main event of the year. We also had a swimming party. Tom Hodgson was a new member of our class. We lost Marvin Kennell, Roger Wilder, and Wanda Wilder.

In our Sophomore year we gained Bob Bodkins and Irma Schultze. We lost Marian DuBois and Dorothy Jenkins. Mr. Cravens was our sponsor. Our officers were: Jim Monge, President; Dick Bachman, Vice-President; Betty DeGiovanni, Secretary–Treasurer; Student Council representatives were Jim Monge, Tom Hodgson, and Judy Fehr. Many of the sophomores were pleased to serve at the Junior–Senior Banquet this year.. Our class sponsored an all-school dance and the girls won the G.A.A. championship in basketball.

Margie Wirth joined our class during our Junior year. Bob Bodkins, Irma Schultze, and Jim Morrow had moved away. Mr. Broers was our class sponsor. Our officers were: Jim Monge, President; Tom Hodgson, Vice-President; Betty DeGiovanni, Secretary–Treasurer. Jim Monge, Nancy Martin, Tom Hodgson, and Judy Fehr were on Student Council. Our play "Not in a Thousand Years" was a great success. We sponsored an all-school dance. Probably one of the happiest memories of our class will be the one of working on and attending the Junior–Senior Banquet. From the fountain and roses to the stage, it was all beautiful, and we were all proud of the hard work we had put into it.

Senior News

In late August, we entered R.V.H.S. as seniors, knowing that this would be our last year in high school. Our first big event of the year was initiation of the freshmen. We all had a good time and the freshmen were all good sports.

We elected Dean Whittington to be our last class president. For Vice-President, Shirley Gallianetti; Secretary–Treasurer, Betty DeGiovanni; and Student Council members, Dean Whittington, Jim Monge, Tom Hodgson, and Judy Fehr. Our sponsors were Mr. Broers and Mr. Cravens.

Miss Miller helped us with the Ro-Vic. For the first time in several years, the senior English class put out the Inkwell. Mr. Luallen and Miss Miller helped with this.

Azure blue and white were our class colors; the "American Beauty Rose", our class flower; and our motto, "With the ropes of the past, we ring the bells of the future."

On October 29th we went to Peoria to have our senior pictures taken at Rembrandt's. We also attended a movie that same night.

On November 25, we held our class party. We had a chicken supper at the Sazarac in Peoria. Afterwards we attended a show. Everyone agreed that it was our nicest class party.

We were proud to have three Seniors on the first team of the basketball squad. Congratulations go to Jim Monge, Tom Hodgson, and Dean Whittington, who did such a good job. Georgia Friend and Betty DeGiovanni were cheerleaders.

Our Senior play "Meet Me In St. Louis" was given to a large audience on April 9. It was enjoyed by all. Mary Sauder had the lead.

We all enjoyed the lovely banquet given to us on May 23 by the junior class. Everyone had a good time and the juniors' hard work was appreciated.

Class night we showed our appreciation to the juniors by giving them all a little gift. Our class trip was enjoyed by all and we all were pleased to spend the last few days of school together.

The day we had all been waiting for arrived on May 28, our graduation. We all had many pleasant memories of high school but we are all anxious to get out into the world and see what the future has in store for us.

Class Will

We, the members of the senior class of Roanoke High School, consisting of nothing but extraordinary brain children with sumptuous talents, being of sound mind, superior foresight and ideals, in full possession of a crammed mind, pre-eminent knowledge, superlative personalities, fascinating good looks, captivating sense of humor and engaging smile, out of the generosity of our little hearts, do hereby will to you the following in the hope that they will prove useful to you in the future.

To dear old R.V.H.S. we leave all the gum under seats, broken lockers, marked desks, the tons of marble we wore off while marching to and from the office, mostly to, a rubber check with which our executors may pay all our debts, and to the lucky people (ha!) who will be returning next year, our pictures in the hall to keep them from missing us too much. However, in case they would still grieve over our leaving, we will throw in 140 boxes of Kleenex.

To Mr. Corn we leave a pair of roller skates to help him travel over the Unit District.

To Mr. Cravens we will one automatic trap door for cleaning out his office on busy mornings.

To Loretta Bill we leave a new mimeograph machine, a year's subscription to True Love, and a "Tyrone Power" type "office boy" to help her out.

To Mr. Broers we leave a miniature county basketball trophy because he just can't seem to win one.

To Mr. Luallen we leave a set of bookkeeping answer books in case he loses a few.

To Miss Miller we leave a play cast that learns their lines before the last week of the play.

To Miss Clark we leave a stove radio which will play music appropriate to what she is cooking such as "Apple Pan Dowdy" when she's making dumplings and a record that repeats "The Bell Has Rung" to quiet those noisy Freshman girls.

We leave Mr. Furr a season's pass to all Chicago Cub baseball games, since we all know he enjoys good baseball.

To Mr. Crawford we leave a cow, pig, and chickens to give his Ag Department a farm-like atmosphere.

To Mr. Koos we leave a jet-propelled robot to track down all the absentees from study hall and classes.

To Mr. Nyberg we leave a box of Pablum to feed to his sophomores in geometry class.

To Miss Heinzelmann we leave a lie detector so she can prove the girls are really taking showers.

To Mr. Webb we leave our sympathy, because of the struggle he will have in the future days to direct the mixed chorus without our superior support and open eyes.

To Mr. Murphy we leave a pair of acid-proof pants. This will eliminate the quick dashes to the water faucet.

To Mr. George we leave ambitious underclassmen who will stay in band.

To Mr. Behnke we leave a mechanical bed with wheels, motor, and binoculars, so he can lie down while cleaning up dear old R.V.H.S.

To Mr. Harvey we bequeath a magnet that collects all dirt and an escalator to carry him up the stairs. We also give him our permission to slide down the banisters.

Tom Leman leaves his date book to Jerome Beenders, so don't be too surprised if you see Jerome with a girl once in a while.

Wally Leman leaves his grace on the basketball floor to Rog Aeschleman.

Rachel Leman leaves her giggle to Sara Jean Aeschleman. "Boy, I'm sure glad to get rid of that."

Shelby Kenyon leaves what's left to the chemistry department to anyone who is dumb enough to take it.

Bob Blunier leaves to Louis Vogel an unlimited supply of gasoline so he will have no legitimate excuse to park his car in unusual places.

Anita Sansone leaves her towering height to Norman Pruvost. Anita's famous quotation is "Don't let the stars get in your eyes."

Jim Sauder leaves to Lyn Riviere this advice: "If studying interferes with a good time, don't study."

Marvin Aeschleman leaves everything he learned in English IV to Wayne Ulrich. "Marvin, you tightwad."

Shirley Gallianetti leaves her blond Italian-cut hair to Teresa DeGiovanni, who just despises her long black curls.

Dale Kempf leaves his invention of good-tasting, two-way tooth paste to Joe Bachman, so Joe can spread it between two slices of bread and clean his teeth while he fills his stomach.

Beverly Capponi leaves her ability to go steady with one boy to Pat Herbst, who seems to flit from one boy to another.

Marilyn Bernius leaves her seat in 7th hour study hall and all the gum under it to Joanne McEldowney. There is quite an assortment of flavors. It makes the desk "Wrigley."

Dorothy Fischer leaves to Rachel Zehr one acid-eaten chemistry apron. It looks as though Dorothy worked very hard this year. (Looks are sometimes deceiving!)

Margie Wirth wills her healthy sense of humor to Sharon Grendel. Especially effective in Home Economics Class; it keeps the girls in "stitches".

Dean Whittington leaves to Dick Herbst his power to attract attention from those cute little underclassmen.

Jim Monge, being of sound mind, takes everything he has with him.

Dale McCauley leaves his high I.Q. to Billy Joe Davis.

Georgia Friend leaves her hilarious laugh to Marlene Hasler, who is much too quiet!

Sue Vogel refuses to leave her "Speediness" to anyone.

Gary Audi leaves his reserved seat behind the eightball to whoever gets there first.

Tom Hodgson leaves his ability to stay out late at night and still get to school on time to Martha Hafermann.

Betty DeGiovanni leaves her flaming red hair to all the dishwater blonds in school.

Roger Whittington leaves his powerful build to Jim Byrd.

Dick Bachman leaves his ability in playing the piano to anyone who will solemnly promise to do his utmost to become a good musician.

Jeanie Wheelwright wills her ability to find "a one and only" in her senior year to Phyllis Gallianetti.

Grace Bachman is leaving her ability to talk like a machine gun, when well loaded, to Rosemary Egli.

Mary Ann Walker leaves her ability to make nonsensical remarks in class to Roger Herbst.

Lyford Klein bequeaths to Velda Fischer his ability to sleep through classes and study halls; be it ever so noisy!

Mary Sauder leaves her size nine tennis shoes to Virginia Bachman, who wants a change from her own size, which is two and one-half.

Leroy Monge leaves his ability to get along with Benson kids to Dixie Hoover.

Nancy Martin leaves her way of being ornery in English to Rachel Blunier. (But we doubt if she needs it!)

Judy Fehr leaves Les Bauman three mice and a garter snake to be let loose in study hall. That ought to create quite a riot.

Helen Audi leaves her ability to find a "backer" in all she does to Margaret Audi.

Signed, sealed, and published as our last will and testament by THE SENIOR CLASS OF ROANOKE HIGH SCHOOL.

Class Prophecy

We, the class of 1954, graduates of Roanoke High School, do hereby prophesy and declare the following to be true 10 years from this day.

Roger Whittington is now manager of the Stork Club giving the star performance under the name "Fifi Larue".

Marilyn Bernius is now operating "Lyn's Beauty Shop" next to Roanoke High School because as you all know, beauty disappeared with the class of '54.

We are proud to have one of the members of our class become one of the most famous writers the world has ever known. Mary Sauder has just finished her latest novel, "Gone With The Schwind" which won the academy award.

Dean Whittington has now reached a lifelong ambition – President of the Step-Ladders Union. He is well qualified for this position because of his many years spent in Riley's Grocery Store.

Wally Leman has become famous as a food manufacturer. In place of "Birdseye" we now have "Sparrow Legs."

Jim Monge is now chief "gravedigger" in the El Paso cemetery.

Mary Ann Walker is now head librarian to the Band of America.

Dale Kempf has received nationwide fame by solving the difficult problem "Which came first, the chicken or the egg?" This was preceded by his many years research on the question, "Did the weaving sag at the '53 Jr.–Sr. Banquet?"

Jim Sauder is now president of the "Sawdust" Dairy. The company's trademark is "Butterballs."

Have you ever been to the T.P. & W. Restaurant? Well, you don't know what you're missing. The food is good but you should see the floor show. Margie Wirth has become the singing and dancing head waitress. She pours coffee down your neck and sings, "How Deep is the Ocean" at the same time.

Georgia Friend, known as "Flora, the Fat", the fattest woman in the world, is with the Ringling Brothers Circus playing in the metropolis of East Crougar.

Every fifteen minutes over station BABS is heard a high tenor voice singing commercial advertising for the new Soy Bean flavored soda pop. This plastic throated warbler is Dick Bachman.

Dorothy Fischer, after graduating from nurses training, is now on a tour of Europe where she not only heals the soldiers wounds but she brings back memories of home with her lilting melodies.

The brainstorm of the class of 1954 has now completed her masterpiece. Nancy Martin has invented a device in which you push a button and the brain starts working.

Marvin Aeschleman is a great track star. He hangs on the end of the train and sweeps the track off.

West of Roanoke, occupying 640 acres, is the large and world-famous spotted Poland China Pig Farm. From early morning to sundown, Tom Leman spends his time conducting a class in which he teaches his pigs to blow bubble gum. On rainy days he takes time off to curl the pig tails.

Dale McCauley is now keeping books at Caterpillar, keeping them hidden, that is, so the boss can't see he is off $1,500.

Shirley Gallianetti, the famous artist from R.V.H.S., has just finished her painting masterpiece, "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer." It took her several years because of the interruptions from her "lively" kids.

Jeanie Wheelwright is working for the Schook Flying Service, spending most of her time on her boss's knee taking dictation.

After a nationwide talent search and a very high recommendation from Mr. Don Luallen, Rachel Leman has replaced Irma on the television show, "My Friend Irma." She is better than ever and twice as confusing.

Lyford Klein has finally reached the height of his ambition. He is now assistant to the assistant truck driver for the Gallianetti Transfer Company.

Gary Audi, after intense study and research at the U. of I., is now the friendly undertaker. He likes his business good and dead.

On a spacious sugar farm north of Roanoke, Mrs. Cletus Knoll, formerly known as Shelby Kenyon, is teaching her kids how to raise cane.

After 10 years of hard work, Tom Hodgson has just completed a four year course of college and is now a follow up man; he follows up the girls.

Leroy Monge is enjoying his job as Admiral in the navy recruiting the new Waves. In his spare time he is diligently working to find a formula to get more miles out of gasoline so he can get to Benson more often.

Sue Vogel spends her spare time gazing up at the skies. She doesn't have too much time because she has six little "Speed" demons running around the house.

Anita Sansone is living in her penthouse apartment in New York, which she bought from the royalties she received from her successful book, "How to Grow Tall in Ten Easy Lessons."

Living in the old maid's home in Reno is Beverly Capponi. She could never make up her mind between "Dick, Duane, or Jerry". She may now be heard on the radio program "Why Every Girl Should Marry."

Betty DeGiovanni and Helen Audi are now starting on a new movie entitled "Singing in the Shower". This movie follows their great academy award winner "Lovely Luawana Lady."

Grace Bachman is now head waitress in Dick's restaurant, dishing up little "Faudi-Maudies."

We now see Judy Fehr as Roanoke High's new art teacher. Judy's only comment is, "Egads, I thought I left this place for good."

Bob Blunier now has his own Ford garage. He fell in love with and married a beautiful bank secretary. He is now raising his own swarm of little hot-rodders.

We, the departing Seniors, never to be forgotten, do hereby predict that the foregoing is the truth, all the truth and nothing but the truth and will be fulfilled ten years from this date, May 28, 1964.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Junior News

We entered the halls of R.V.H.S. this year as upperclassmen. Half of our school days were over and it seems like only yesterday that we entered high school as freshmen. Our class officers this year were:

President . . . . . Phyllis Gallianetti
Vice-President . . . . . Norman Pruvost
Secretary . . . . . .Velda Fischer
Treasurer . . . . . .Harold Nauman
Student Council Members . . Phyllis Gallianetti
Les Luginbuhl
Pat Herbst
Mary Kay Bertolo

Our first big event of the year was ordering our class rings. Most of the class got pearl sets. They arrived on December 4 and everyone was pleased with them.

Our play "Miss Collegiate" was presented on November 20. It was a success and everyone enjoyed the play. Pat Herbst and Roger Herbst had the leading parts.

To earn money for the Junior–Senior Banquet which we gave in honor of the seniors, we sold candy and pop at games and at noons. We also picked up corn for which we received half the profit from the farmer.

Our class party was held second semester.

We are proud of the Juniors on the varsity squad this year. They were: Roger Aeschleman, Roger Herbst, Jerome Beenders, Louis Vogel, Wayne Ulrich, and Lyn Riviere, Janice Martin and Mary Kay Bertolo were cheerleaders.

ARLENE FERRERO

Though she is gone, we won't forget her. We'll always remember the happy smile and kind word she had for everyone. The thought of her sweet personality will remain with us forever.

IN MEMORY OF OUR DEAR CLASSMATE

Your toiling days
On earth are done;
Though you have gone afar,
Our memory of you
Will ever shine
As that brightest evening star.

Your smile of friendship
And pretty brown hair,
With your sparkling eyes,
seemed to say,
"Be my friend,
And I'll be yours
Each hour of the day."

Our dear classmate,
We'll always remember
With thoughts so clear and keen
The happy days
We all have shared
With you, our Dear Arlene.

Sophomore Class News

We, the Sophomore Class, entered the halls of R.V.H.S. for the second time and elected the following officers:

President .....Mary Lou Faucon
Vice-President..... Jim Beenders
Secretary ..... Mary Lou Saccaro
Treasurer .....Glenn Moser
Student Council Members ..... Larry Hountz
Anña Mae Fischer

We sponsored an all-school dance on Friday, February 5. There were games, dancing, doorprizes, and a delicious lunch. Rosemarie Monge and Myrtle Lee and Mary Lou Faucon sang some songs for the special entertainment of the evening.

We want to congratulate Jim Beenders for being the only sophomore on the varsity squad this year. Teresa DeGiovanni represented our class on the cheerleading squad.

The Sophomore Class presented a one-act play, "Selma Goes Psychic", at El Paso on February 18 in the annual Woodford County Speech and Dramatics Festival. Taking part were: Mary Lou Faucon, Larry Hountz, Tom Vergina, Earl Troyer, Patsy Schumacher, Rachel Blunier.

We picked up corn this fall, and sponsored the movie "All The Brothers Were Valiant" to earn money for the class treasury.

We are all looking forward to next year when we will at last be "upperclassmen".

Freshmen News

We entered high school in early August and and were promptly greeted by the seniors at our initiation. We had to go through a lot of humiliation on that one day but it was also a lot of fun and no one would have missed it if he could.

Our officers for our first year in high school were:

President . . . . . Bob Vogel
Vice-President. . . . . Sandra Legel
Secretary–Treasurer . . Sara Jean Aeschleman
Student Council Members . . . . . Bob Vogel

Our class sponsor was Mr. Luallen.

On March 6 we sponsored a bake sale to raise funds to give an all-school dance. This dance was held the second semester.

We all had a lot of fun our freshman year and are looking forward to next year when we will be sophomores. We all know that things will be even nicer next year when the building will be finished and we will have one of the nicest high schools in the state of Illinois.

VARIETY SHOW

On November 6, 1953, the music department sponsored our sixth annual Variety Show. The theme this year was "Sun, Moon, and Stars".

It was made up largely of the choruses and band. Various numbers were also given by other groups. Examples are shown above: Sharon Grendel, baton twirling; Junior Pantomime; a comedy act by Beverly Capponi and Marilyn Bernius.

JUNIOR PLAY CAST

SEATED: Phyllis Gallianetti, Clarence Bachman, Mary Kay Bertolo, Jim Byrd, Alice Peters, Shirley Behnke, and Sharon Grendel. Winter Parties

"HOMECOMING HIGHLIGHTS"

Russ Look and his orchestra provided three hours of good dancing music to the students and guests of Roanoke High on January 30 at their annual homecoming dance. The dance was formal again this year and many beautiful formals were worn by the girls of R.V.H.S.

"GLEE CLUB PARTY"

On December 9th, the combined glee clubs held a dancing party. Dale Kempf's blue team entertained Roger Whittington's gold team at this party. Entertainment was provided by the losing team and refreshments of pop, cookies, and potato chips were served. A good time was had by all.

"SOPHOMORE PARTY"

On February 5th, the Sophomore Class sponsored an all-school party. Dancing and games were enjoyed by all. The Faucon twins and Rosemarie Monge provided the entertainment.

"HAIL THE CHAMPS"

The student council is one of the most important organizations of our school because it gives the students some voice in the government of the school. The president of this year's student council is Tom Hodgson. Tom was chosen by the whole school at an all-school election held last March. This election enables the president and one other member of the council to attend the annual Student Council Convention. Tom and Jim Monge attended the convention in Chicago last April.

Student Council takes into consideration and discusses problems of the school and tries to offer suggestions that may make conditions better for the students. The council this year earned money by selling popcorn at basketball games. Their big event of the year was sponsoring the Homecoming Dance which was held on January 30th. They also helped put on the initiation of the freshmen. In addition to this they also solve current problems as they come along.

School Days

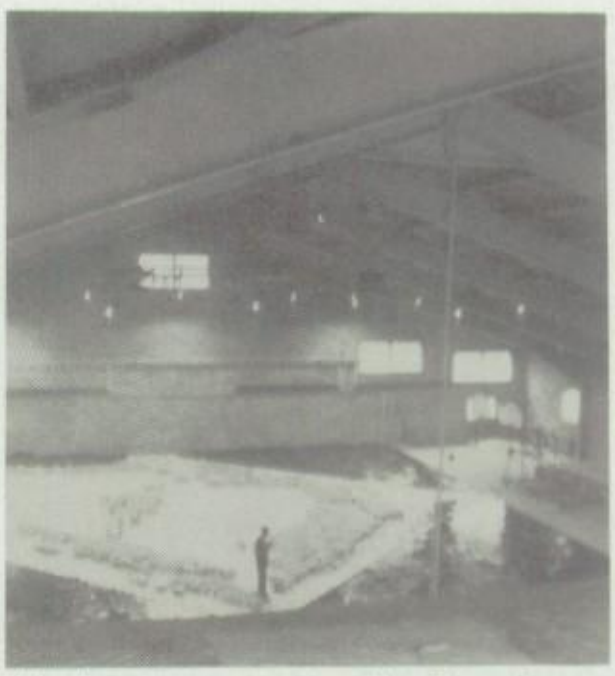
"Hooray, good books today!"
The bookmobile is a welcome sight to those who enjoy good books.

"Here comes Roanoke High!"
Roanoke High is represented by band and F.F.A. at Eureka Pumpkin Festival.

"Now let's all say cheese." Rembrandt's Studio takes pictures for the Ro-Vic.

"See the birdie!" School pictures were taken in September.

"Junior highlight" Mr. Mullins selling rings to the Junior Class.



"A dream comes true." Four long years of waiting and our gym is finally done.

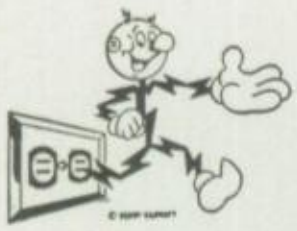
—THE KEY TO YOUR FUTURE

Ben Franklin used his key . . . and paved the way for the many modern conveniences we enjoy today with electricity.

The degrees or diplomas you receive are your keys to apply your learning in an adult practical world. Use your key well . . . that graduates in the years to follow may benefit from the better society you will have helped create.



we Congratulate You!
